

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Port Washington, Wisconsin

Call Weekend and Special Congregational Meeting Summary September 26 and 27, 2020

Meet and Greet on Saturday afternoon, September 26th – There were 60 people in attendance for the Meet and Greet (including Council, Search Committee and their families), comprised of 32 family groups.

Call Sunday Church Service and Special Congregational Zoom Meeting on Sunday, September 27th – Our Call Sunday began on Sunday morning with a virtual church service conducted by the candidate. If you would like to view the Call Sunday Church Service, please email Amy Gilhooly, our Communications Director, at amyg@portucc.org for the link.

72 people joined the Special Congregational Meeting, from 50 households. Of the 72 people, 50 had attended the Meet and Greet on Saturday.

The meeting was called to order at 11:02 a.m. by Jeanne Mantsch, Church Moderator. Attendees were counted as they logged onto the call.

Shandy Roehrig, one of the members of the Search Committee, presented an overview of the Search Committee's work (their journey, experiences, considerations and final candidate choice) to those present.

It was moved by Ken Matthews, and seconded by Gary Drasch, to affirm the call of Rev. Scott McLeod unanimously. This was followed by a question and answer period. A voice vote was taken. There were not any 'No' votes recorded.

Jeanne expressed thanks to the Search Committee for their long and diligent search process.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:50 am.
