

Our Church School kids had a memorable time on December 8. They traveled around the church while learning about the Christmas Story and collecting pieces for their very own nativity.