

IN OUR PRAYERS

Jim Blumenberg. Roberta's husband, Jim, was hospitalized for several days in January with difficulty breathing, he is back home now, but prayers are welcome.

Alice Ruffin. Alice had hip replacement surgery early in January that went well and Alice is making steady progress with physical therapy.

Bruce Laabs, Sr. Bruce continues to be on palliative care at Ellen's Home here in Port Washington.

Carl Anderson. Savannah Anderson's father, Carl, was hospitalized on Christmas Day for breathing difficulty due to a heart condition. He is home doing better and would appreciate prayers.

Betty Bollinger. Betty continues to make progress after falling and breaking her hip on Christmas Eve. Betty is doing rehab work at Cedarburg Health Services and hopes to return to Harbor Club later this month.

Bridget Bretl had surgery late in January to remove a small, benign tumor that was effecting her eye-sight and causing headaches. Surgery went well and she hopes to be back to work in a couple of weeks.

Brenda Shupe. Brenda is recovering from back pain due to a fall in December, and bronchitis this past month.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Sherrie and Mike Dimmer. Mike and Sherrie are grandparents again, their youngest son, Evan, and his wife, Katie, welcomed a son, Parker Mitchell Dimmer on January 2. Parker was born a month premature, but he is now at home and doing well.

To Jim and Karen McKenzie who were married at church on January 21. Rev. Don Niederfrank officiated the ceremony.

To Family Promise of Ozaukee County who celebrated the opening of our community's new shelter for families and individuals experiencing homelessness. You might be interested to know that church member, Jeanne Mantsch, was a founding member of the Ozaukee Chapter. We thank Jeanne for continuing to lead numerous initiatives over the years to support Family Promise.

To Grace Wilsnack, Kylee Olson, and Simon Gilhooly who participated in WSDA (Wisconsin Choral Director's Association) All-State Choirs the weekend of January 13-14 in Appleton.
